STAT

Dear

About a month ago I met with you briefly to inform you that the National Archives and Records Administration would shortly be accessioning the records of the war in Southeast Asia. The Department of the Army has now formally transferred title and custody of these records. They are located at the Washington National Records Center in Suitland, Maryland.

The records of the combat and support units operating in Vietnam have been reviewed and declassified with few exceptions by the Department of the Army reviewers over the past six years. These records are being further processed and described by NARA personnel with the intention of opening them to the public over the course of the next few years.

The Army also did some preliminary arrangement of records of U.S. Army elements in Thailand during the Vietnam conflict. A copy of the Army's description of the records involved, nearly 100 cublic feet of material, is enclosed. The Thailand records were not reviewed by the Department of the Army for declassification. Declassification review of these records will be the first assignment of the Records Declassification Division.

In order to conduct the necessary declassification review, it will be necessary to have the best possible guidance on the remaining security sensitivities of your agency which might be found in these records. You are invited to have experts from your staff examine the records involved in order to prepare the necessary declassification guidance.

Tom Hohmann, Supervisory Archivist in the General Archives Review Branch of the Records Declassification Division, will arrange to have the records made available to your expert for examination. He can be reached at 763-4623. Please call Mr. Hohmann or me (523-3165) if there are any further questions.

Your prompt attention to the development of declassification guidance will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

EDWIN A. THOMPSON

Director

Records Declassification Division

APPENDIX B:

The U.S. Army in Thailand During the Vietnam Conflict

The United States Army build-up in Thailand can be traced to the establishment of the U.S. Military Assistance Command, Thailand on 15 May 1962. Early that year a combined U.S. task force was deployed to Thailand on a military exercise which included a Marine Battalion Landing Team (BLT), the 1st Battle Group, 27th Infantry* (25th Infantry Division) and supporting elements under a detachment of the 9th Logistical Command. They were joined by an army aviation company composed of Caribou aircraft on 10 July 1962. In late August the 1st Battle Group, 35th Infantry* (25th Infantry Division) replaced the 1st Battle Group, 27th Infantry. However, this task force was withdrawn November 1962 after the situation in Laos stabilized. In the meantime, several U.S. Army units had been sent to Thailand on a permanent basis and by November 1966 the U.S. Army Support Command, Thailand, was established. This Appendix provides a listing of the army units stationed in Thailand, since they fulfilled direct or indirect support functions related to the Vietnam conflict to the extent that most received Vietnam service credit in recognition of their supporting role.

 These battle groups were redesignated battalions by DA as follows:

1st Battle Group, 27th Infantry 25 August 1963 1st Battle Group, 35th Infantry 12 August 1963
